CAUTIONARY NOTICE.

The administration of a Government depends not only upon methods, but also upon able Officials; for, if good methods are followed, the administration will go on smoothly and in order, and the people will be benefited. This is the reason the people will be benefited. This is the reason the people will be benefited. This is the reason the people will be benefited.

One of the people who attended the meeting was a gentleman named Tani-ichi, who was nothing more than getting good methods and proper officials. A friend, long resident in Haueu, and who had been in the United States for many years, has heard that the new Acting Registrar-General, ANTONIO JOAQUIM BARROS, is a good and capable Official; his good character is heard in all quarters, and all the people are glad to hear of his appointment to the position, and when he was young he went to school and studied the law, and when he was grown up became a lawyer and practised as such. He speaks the Japanese language and also the Portuguese language. Since he has been appointed acting Registrar-General, his duties are

There is not one case lost which is not aided. From this we may judge of his talent. When a case is brought before him he tries it and is usually and fairly, and in a case of difficulty he consults the elders, and then the judges, and asks their advice, in order to settle the case amicably; like the Judges in the olden times. Mr. Barrow is mild and humble, and is not at all vain, and is not at all self-seeking, and is very profitable to the country he would do it all I would appreciate anything likely to work mischief; while in cases where people cannot pay their dues, he has been known to pay for them, and in cases where people are robbed by thieves, and if there be anything like the conscience in a man, he consults their friends with a laudable desire to do duty to his government and to his people. He being thus so humble, merciful, and kind, the people look upon him as a father, and he is loved by his parent. I am not at all surprised at his being so, but merely state the fact, that a Good spirit exists in Moses, which is a matter
